Almost Lost An Eye

While playing at the Gymnasium last Thursday night, Louis Wigg narrowly escaped putting out an eye for Lawrence Case. The former was poking at the latter with a broom handle, to which apparently something sharp had been attached, and striking him in the forehead with it, laid his face open for almost three inches. Dr. Shurick was summoned and dressed the wound, and it is hoped no bad results will ensue.

Our Assessed Valuation

At a recent meeting of the Town Council, the tax levy for the ensuing year was decided upon, being one per cent. As the assessed valuation of the town is $129,890.00, this will mean that the total taxes for the year will amount to $1,298.90.

Dr. Emery is away on a professional visit to the West Coast.

Pack 6500 Cases Only

R. L. Leonard, of the Dry Bay Packing Co., was a passenger on the Humboldt, south bound. He reports that owing to the delay experienced in getting the cannery erected, the run of fish was so nearly over that they are able to secure but 6,500 cases as the pack for the year, all reds. This is the cannery "Marshal" Grant is interested in. Mr. Leonard states that everything is now in shape for a big pack next year.

Back From The States

Mayor P. C. McCormack, wife and family, returned on the Dolphin after a visit with friends in the states, all glad to be in Wrangell again. During his absence, as announced elsewhere in The Sentinel, Peter bought out the interest of Messrs. McHugh and Montague, his partners in the St. Michael Trading Co., and will hereafter conduct the business independently.

Hallow E'en Party

Shortly after nine o'clock on Hallow E'en, a ghastly procession of Egyptian mummies and other spooks in floating white draperies were seen in Petersburg wending their way to the home of Mr. and Charles Linscott, on Capitol Hill. Upon arrival they were ushered into Oriental parlors by other ghosts in winding sheets and head gear two feet high. From every side of the room glared red eyes from hideous looking skulls and pumpkin faces amid evergreen decorations.

Not a word was spoken till the clock struck ten, but the groans and sighs were pathetic. Pencils and paper were then distributed by Mrs. Linscott and the ghosts were told to write down the names of the other ghosts. Roars of merriment followed the unmasking, when gray whiskers fell from youthful chins and portly figures became slender. The first prize, consisting of a rubber doll, was won by Miss Edna Gaynor.

Fortune telling and other games and contests were indulged in till midnight, when the guests gathered around the festal board and partook of a generous repast. Then lights went out, and as blue flames shot up from the plate before each lively spook, weird and thrilling ghost stories were told until some of the shivering spirits were afraid to go home in the dark, so the gallant hosts, Delbert Linscott, Roy Brown and Philip Gaynor, with a blare of unghostly trumpets, kept watch at the street corners till the revelers had all safely reached home.—Contributed.

Partnership Dissolved

Notice is hereby given that P. C. McCormack of Wrangell, Alaska, has purchased the interests of T. C. McHugh and Bernard Montague in the St. Michael Trading Company, doing business at Wrangell, Alaska.

P. C. McCormack having become the sole owner of the business will continue to conduct the same under the old name. All persons indebted to the said St. Michael Trading Company will pay their indebtedness to P. C. McCormack.

Town Council Gets Busy

The Town Council had an interesting time of it Monday night. During the session, which was a special one, an ordinance was passed for the purpose of preventing cattle and chickens running at large on the streets of the town, and also licensing dogs. The license on a male dog was fixed at $1.50 per year, and on a female dog $2.00 for the same time. In addition to this, a new sidewalk was ordered laid on Stickine avenue, from Al. Osborn's corner this way to the Cole property. A new walk was laid to the latter point comparatively recently.

Take Notice

Notice is hereby given that trespassing upon the Jensen reservoir for skating or any other purpose is strictly forbidden, and anyone trespassing thereon will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

J. G. GRANT.

The Complete Count

The official returns of the recent election as compiled by the canvassing board, were made public last week and, in brief, are as follows:

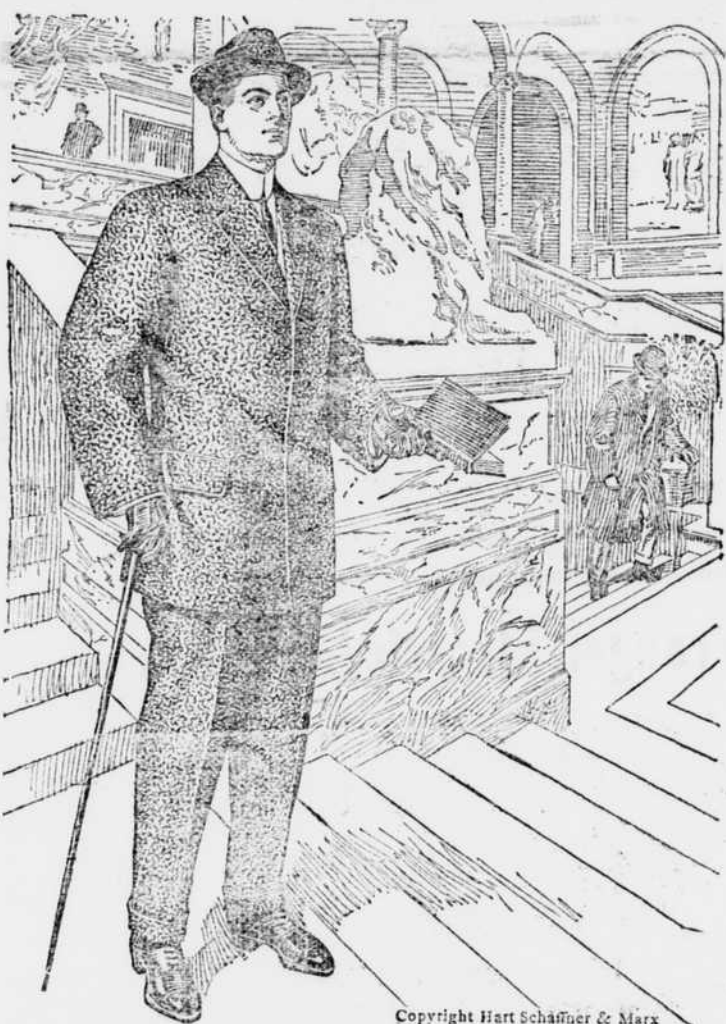

Total regular vote: Wickersham 3390; Orr, 2503; O'Connor, 1666; scattering, 2. Total irregular vote: Wickersham, 1182; Orr, 764; O'Connor, 369; scattering, 6. Grand totals, Wickersham, 4572; Orr, 3267; O'Connor, 1435; scattering, 8.

The irregular vote of 2321 cast for the candidates counting in the election was caused by election officials not notifying the governor's office of the election.

The 1908 election returns were:

Wickersham	-	-	3,802
Chilberg	-	-	2,383
Corson	-	-	2,139
Ronan	-	-	1,007
Chum	-	-	294

Webster's NEW INTERNATIONAL Dictionary, (G. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass.) surpasses the old International as much as that book exceeded its predecessor. On the old foundation a new superstructure has been built. The reconstruction has been carried on through many years by a large force of trained workers, under the supervision of Dr. W. T. Harris, former United States Commissioner of Education, and reinforced by many eminent specialists. The definitions have been reexamined and amplified. The number of terms defined has been more than doubled. The etymology, synonyms, pronunciation, have received unsparing scholarly labor. The language of English literature for over seven centuries, the terminology of the arts and sciences, and the every-day speech of street, shop, and household, are presented with fullness and clearness. In size of vocabulary, in richness of general information, and in convenience of consultation, the book sets a new mark in lexicography.

If he should come tonight---
THE THIEF

THE thief comes prepared—prepared to take your valuables. Carries the necessary tools. Is expert in their use. One of his tools is the revolver. In plain words, he is prepared to take your life. His deadly intent and expertness makes up for his revolver's awkwardness and slowness.

You have neither expertness or deadly intent. You cannot afford to stake everything upon a wrist-straining, trigger-flinching, slow-as-molasses firearm. Settle this matter to-day for the sake of the streets, alleys, squares, or public grounds, in the Town of Wrangell, Alaska, and it is hereby made the duty of the Marshal to notify the owner of the said dog in writing to pay the tax on the same within five days after the receipt of the said notice, and in default thereof the said dog will be killed.

Section 6. In any case where the owner of any dog is unknown, it shall be the duty of the Marshal to use due diligence to find the owner thereof, and to notify him as in this ordinance provided, and if after five days said owner shall not be found, said dog shall be killed and disposed of as in this ordinance provided. If after notice to any owner of any such dog, the owner fails, refuses or neglects for a period of two days to pay the dog tax in this ordinance provided for, the Marshal shall kill and dispose of the said dog in the manner provided for in this ordinance.

DEAD DOGS TO BE DISPOSED OF

Section 7. When any dogs are killed, as provided in this ordinance, they must be disposed of in a manner to be specified by the the Board of Health.

PERMITTING VICIOUS OR MAD DOGS TO RUN AT LARGE

Section 8. It shall be unlawful to permit any female dog, during breeding season; any habitually vicious dog, any mad dog, or any other dog dangerous to life or health, to run at large within the town limits of the Town of Wrangell, Alaska. If the necessity of the occasion requires it, the Marshal shall kill at once, any vicious or mad dog, or any dog dangerous to life or health. If, however, the public health or safety shall justify it, it shall be the Marshal's duty to notify the owner, forthwith, to take said dog at once and keep it in a secure place or otherwise dispose of it. If any such notice be given and the owner fails, neglects or refuses to obey said notice within twenty-four hours thereafter, and the said dog is still running at large, the Marshal shall kill and dispose of the said dog as provided for in this ordinance, provided that if the public good require it, any dog mentioned in this section shall be killed and disposed of, forthwith, by the Marshal without giving previous notice to the owner thereof. And provided further, if any such dog has not been licensed as in this ordinance provided for, the Marshal kill such dog forthwith. All dogs killed must be disposed of in the manner provided for in this ordinance.

PENALTY FOR VIOLATION

Section 9. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance in any particular shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the town jail, not exceeding ten days, or both.

REPEAL OF ORDINANCES INCONSISTENT HEREWITH, ETC.

Section 10. All ordinances, parts of ordinances, and resolutions in conflict herewith, and particularly all of Ordinance No. 5, and the amendments thereto, entitled "To Provide for Public Pound and Estray Dogs, etc.," passed and approved by the Common Council of Wrangell, Alaska, on the 3rd day of August, 1903, are hereby expressly repealed.

TIME OF TAKING EFFECT

Section 11. This ordinance shall be published in the Wrangell Sentinel, a weekly paper published in the Town of Wrangell, Alaska, in the issue of said newspaper of November 10, 1910, and be posted in at least three conspicuous places in said town, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval, publication and posting.

Passed by the Common Council of Wrangell, Alaska, this 7th day of November, 1910.

Approved this 7th day of November, 1910, by the President of the Common Council of Wrangell, Alaska.

Do Not Trespass

It has come to my notice that parties from Wrangell have been skating on the ice in the Town reservoir, which is absolutely contrary to law, as by so doing there is danger that they will pollute the towns water supply. Accordingly notice is hereby given that trespassing thereon is strictly forbidden, and anyone doing so will be prosecuted

Councilman Al Osborn has asked The Sentinel to call the attention of parents in the neighborhood of the electric light plant that the youngsters there are in the habit of making away with the iron bar left there to ring the fire alarm triangle. Its absence when needed would probably mean the difference between a little blaze and a bad fire at some time, so you had better tell the children to leave it alone.

A New Saw Mill

Representatives of the George E. James Mill Co. have been in town this week looking over the proposition of establishing another saw mill in this district. Today they left for McHenry inlet on the lower end of Etolin island, where they have practically decided to locate their plant. The mill, according to present plans, will probably be the most complete and modern in the whole of Alaska. It will be operated exclusively by water power, of which there is an abundance, and in addition to the regular lumber business will invade the salmon box field. It is probable that a pulp mill will be added as soon as conditions warrant it. George E. James & Co. are now operating the mill at Douglas on a lease which will expire in another year, and the calculations are to have the new plant ready for business by the time possession of the other has to be surrendered. The location of the new mill is such that a specialty will be made of cargo business as it will be close to the line of steamboat travel. The tug Challenge will probably be secured to do the towing for the new mill.
